FUND EVALUATION GROUP ANNOUNCES NEW HIRE William Goslee Joins FEG as Senior Vice President

CINCINNATI—May 23, 2008-- Fund Evaluation Group (FEG) recently hired William Goslee as a senior vice president in business development where he is responsible for expanding FEG's investment advisory business and investment research services with financial institutions, advisors and intermediaries.

"We feel very fortunate to have Bill on our team," said Gary Price, managing principal. "He is a seasoned senior investment professional who brings a great deal of insight and experience to FEG and I am confident our clients will benefit from his strategic thinking and innovative approach."

Bill brings over twenty years of investment experience, most recently as a vice president for Nationwide Financial Services in Columbus, and prior to that with Goldman Sachs Asset Management in New York. He graduated from the University of Notre Dame and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), Financial Executives Institute (FEI) and Financial Planning Association (FPA).

"Based on my experience working with some of the leading financial services firms, I believe FEG is positioned well for growth and I'm proud to be part of such a talented team," said Goslee. "FEG's independent, employee-owned structure combined with its twenty years of institutional experience allows us to provide objective, high quality investment solutions for our clients."

Bill lives in Mason with his wife and five children.
