

September 11, 2006

PRESS RELEASE

Wetzel Awarded Certified Pension Consultant Credential

James David Wetzel, CFP, AMS, CPC, QPA, QKA was awarded the Certified Pension Consultant credential by the American Society of Pension Professionals & Actuaries (ASPPA) on August 10, 2006. Mr. Wetzel completed a rigorous education and examination program, covering a broad range of retirement plan issues. He has joined a select group of 805 retirement plan professionals across the country that holds the CPC credential.

Mr. Wetzel also holds a Bachelors Degree in Business Administration with emphasis on Finance/Accounting and Economics from the Western Michigan University and is currently the Vice President of Fund Evaluation Group, LLC, a fee only pension and investment, 100% employee owned firm.

ASPPA is a national organization of retirement plan professionals dedicated to the preservation and enhancement of the private pension system in the United States. Its 6,050+ members provide consulting and administrative support to over half of the private retirement plans in the country.

Contact: Elsa Dizon, Membership Coordinator, (703) 516-9300